Property Description

The property is approached via a stunning block paved driveway providing off road parking for multiple vehicles.

A uPVC double glazed door opens into a large entrance porch with a useful store cupboard, and a welcoming entrance hall is laid with solid oak flooring that flows into multiple rooms throughout the ground floor.

A bright and spacious lounge looks onto the rear aspect of the property, leading into a large garden conservatory and enjoys panoramic views of the garden. Accessible off the conservatory is a utility room, a ground floor WC and integral access to the garage.

A large dining room flows into an open plan kitchen fitted with modern 'shaker style' wall and floor mounted units, down lighting and is finished with a tiled splashback. The kitchen also benefits from a range of integrated appliances including a dishwasher, five burner gas hob, double oven, microwave, and extractor hood, while offering ample room for a freestanding 'American style' fridge freezer. Completing the ground floor is a versatile third reception room currently utilised as a home office with fitted storage units.

To the first floor is an 'L shape' landing where you will find a large walk-in wardrobe/storage room, a large primary bedroom has an open plan walk in dressing room with fitted wardrobes and a fully tiled en-suite shower room and has a balcony with stunning views over the historic Gwrych castle and Coed y Gopa woodlands.

A second bedroom offers ample room for freestanding wardrobes, an additional two double bedrooms also offer ample room for freestanding wardrobes, a versatile fifth bedroom could be utilised as an additional home office, and finally a beautiful, partially tiled four-piece family bathroom.

The property also benefits from gas central heating, double glazing throughout, a well-manicured front garden bordered with a brick-built wall and iron railings, a double garage that has been partially converted to form the ground floor WC. To the rear of the property is an enviable rear garden that comprises a large patio area laid with paving stones, a well-manicured lawned area and to the rear of the garden is a recently constructed block-built storage shed/workshop, sunroom, and an open canopy. The rear garden also enjoys a high degree of privacy and plenty of sunlight making it the ideal spot to entertain friends and family during the summer months while hosting a garden party!

Key Feature

A key feature of the property would be its condition! The property has undergone an extensive programme of modernisation completed to a high specification. A brief list of works carried out include the installation of new bathrooms and kitchen, the modification of the double garage to add the ground floor WC and a complete decorative overhaul.

Abergele

Abergele is a small market town, situated on the North Wales Coast between the holiday resorts of Colwyn Bay and Rhyl, in the Conwy County Borough. Its northern suburb of Pensarn lies on the Irish Sea coast and is known for its beach, where it is claimed by some that a ghost ship has been sighted. Abergele and Pensarn railway station serves both resorts.

Abergele lies just off the A55 and is well known for Gwrych Castle. The town is surrounded by woodland covered hillsides, which contain caves where you can find the rare Lesser Horseshoe Bat. The highest hill is Moelfre Isaf (1040 ft) to the south of the town. There are also outstanding views from Cefn-yr-Ogof, Tower Hill and Castell Cawr (known locally as Tan-y-Gopa). Castell Cawr is an Iron age hillfort, one of several in the area.

Abergele (including Pensarn) has a population of around 10,000 and is part of the Abergele/Rhyl/Prestatyn urban area with a population of 64,000. Approximately 29% of Abergele has a significant knowledge of Welsh. The town also has satellite villages such as Saint George, Betws yn Rhos, Rhyd-y-foel, Belgrano, Llanddulas and Llanfair Talhaiarn. (Source: Wikipedia Oct'19)
