Property Description

The property is accessible by car via High Street, leading to a private lane laid with stone chippings. This pathway opens into a spacious parking area, where you'll also find a single garage with a manual up-and-over door, which houses the central heating boiler.

Alternatively, for those on foot, a public pathway through Gele Parc provides direct access to the front of the property. A charming, paved pathway, framed by well-kept lawns and a low-level brick wall, creates an inviting approach, with vibrant flowerbeds adding pops of colour to the space.

Stepping inside, a timber front door with a double-glazed side panel opens into the entrance hall, where you'll find a handy under-stair storage cupboard.

The lounge is a bright and airy space, providing ample room to accommodate lounge furniture as well as a dining table and chairs. Character features such as coved ceilings add charm, while a feature fireplace framed by a timber mantle sits on a stone hearth, with a gas feed available should you wish to install a gas or electric fire.

Flowing off the lounge is a well-proportioned conservatory, laid with traditional quarry tile flooring. This tranquil space is ideal for unwinding in the afternoon sun and could also serve as a dining room, offering lovely garden views.

The kitchen is fitted with a mix of wall and base-mounted units, complemented by a classic patterned splashback. There is plenty of space for a freestanding cooker, a dishwasher, and plumbing for a washing appliance, ensuring practicality.

An additional ground-floor room provides a versatile space that could be utilised as a third bedroom or an additional reception/dining room, depending on your needs. The ground-floor bathroom is finished in a part-tiled floral design and features a bath with a detachable showerhead fed off a mixer tap, a ceramic sink, a WC, and a chrome heated towel rail.

Ascending the staircase, you'll find a large storage / airing cupboard fitted with a radiator, offering an ideal space for drying linens and additional storage.

Two spacious double bedrooms complete the first-floor accommodation, both benefiting from an abundance of fitted wardrobe space. One bedroom features dual Velux windows, while the other enjoys a picturesque view of Tower Hill and the added benefit of an ensuite shower room.

The rear garden is designed with low maintenance in mind, featuring a hardstanding paved path that wraps around to the side of the property. Raised flower beds and a small stone-chipped area add character, all enclosed by timber fencing for privacy. A trio of fruit trees, recently pruned, promises to flourish in the years ahead, and there is ample space for a timber shed.

For those who love the outdoors, scenic riverside walks along the River Gele are just moments away, and keen walkers can explore the beauty of Tower Hill, only a short stroll from the property. The town centre is also within walking distance, offering a variety of shops, gastro pubs, cafés, and other amenities. For those commuting along the North Wales coast, the A55 is easily accessible within a short drive.
