Property Description

The property is approached through a delightful arched gateway, leading to a small flight of steps that opens onto a spacious, private front garden. A paved pathway leads enchantingly through mature conifer trees, guiding you to the entrances of both cottages. On either side of the path, generous lawns are framed by mature hedges, vibrant flowerbeds, and a large pond where carp swim lazily—a tranquil setting that could be easily divided to create a separate private garden for each cottage.

To the rear, off-road parking is available for one vehicle, accessed via what was once an ancient Roman road. This driveway also leads to the rear of the property, where a collection of stone-built outbuildings awaits, including one said to house an old well (as informed by the vendor), adding to the rich character and history of the site.

The cottages themselves are near mirror images, their front façades adorned with charming brick coining around timber-framed windows and sheltered canopy porches above timber front doors.

Services

It is believed the property is connected to mains electric, water and sewage services although we recommend you confirm this with your solicitor.

Both full fibre and copper broadband are available to the property. Source - www.openreach.com/fibre-checker - as of 24-1-25

PLEASE NOTE THAT NO APPLIANCES ARE TESTED BY THE SELLING AGENT.

Bryn Cyn Heulog

Step inside to a welcoming hallway with exposed stone flooring and a useful store cupboard at the far end.

The cosy lounge is fitted with a multi-fuel burning stove that powers the back boiler, providing hot water to the property, and offers a pleasant view over the garden.

A compact galley kitchen is fitted with a mix of wall and base units, with space for freestanding appliances, and includes a water tank cupboard.

The primary bedroom is a generous double with ample room for free-standing furniture, while the second bedroom, features a charming cast-iron fireplace and offers ample room for a single bed and furniture.

A practical utility/storage area leads off the lounge, providing space for additional appliances, and connects to a fully tiled family bathroom complete with a bath, hand wash basin, and WC.

Maes Y Llan

Opens into an entrance hall that branches off into multiple rooms. Stripped back to its exposed brick and stone bones, this cottage is very much a work in progress, awaiting transformation into a warm and inviting home. An extension to the side has laid the foundation for a future open-plan kitchen and dining area, with a rear room perfectly suited as a utility space offering access to the back garden. A well-proportioned bedroom boasts a prominent chimney breast with an open fireplace and quarry-tiled floors, while a second, cosier bedroom features an inset feature fireplace. Additionally, there's a room ready to be converted into a family bathroom.
