Property Description

The property is approached via a low-level wall with iron gates enclosing the front garden, creating a private and welcoming frontage. There is hardstanding off-road parking for one vehicle, and a single garage with a manual up-and-over door, offering useful parking or storage options. The front garden is predominantly laid with paving for ease of maintenance, complemented by established flower beds filled with a variety of mature shrubs that add colour and character.

An open porch leads to a PVC double glazed front door, opening into an L-shaped hallway finished with wood-effect laminate flooring. Access to the loft is provided via a drop-down hatch, offering additional storage potential (please note the loft space has not been inspected by the agent).

The lounge is a generously proportioned and inviting room, featuring a prominent chimney breast with an ornate mantel, stone surround, and gas fireplace, creating a traditional focal point. Coved ceilings add character, while dual-aspect windows allow natural light to fill the space throughout the day. There is ample room for a range of lounge furniture, sideboards, and cabinets, making it a comfortable and practical main living area.

The kitchen is fitted with a selection of shaker-style wall and base units, complemented by laminated worktops, tiled splashbacks, and wood-effect flooring. A timber-clad ceiling adds a touch of character, while there is space for a freestanding gas cooker and plumbing for a washing machine. The central heating boiler is also located here. A folding door leads through to the rear porch, where a useful alcove provides space for a fridge freezer before opening into the conservatory.

The conservatory offers a versatile additional reception space, ideal as a dining area, reading room, or peaceful sitting area. With pleasant views over the rear garden and towards the woodland of Coed y Gopa, it provides a lovely connection to the outdoors and an enjoyable spot to relax.

The primary bedroom is a well-sized double, fitted with an extensive range of wardrobes that continue above the bed space, offering excellent built-in storage. The second bedroom is currently utilised as a home study but remains highly versatile, easily accommodating a double bed if required and readily adaptable to suit a variety of needs.

The bathroom is fully tiled from floor to ceiling for ease of maintenance and features vinyl flooring, a fitted bath with shower over, shower curtain, wash basin, and WC.

To the rear, the garden enjoys a pleasant south-east facing aspect, ensuring a good level of natural sunlight. Designed with low maintenance in mind, it features a combination of paved, hardstanding, and stone-chipped areas, bordered by timber fencing and established shrubs. There is clear potential for further landscaping, allowing a new owner to create an outdoor space tailored to their own taste and lifestyle. Additional features include gated side access to the front, an outside tap, and access to the rear of the garage via a PVC door.

The property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout.
