Property Description
The property is approached via an iron gate opening into a pleasant and low-maintenance front garden laid with stone chippings and bordered by attractive flower beds. A charming seating area provides the perfect place to sit and soak in the spectacular outlook, with uninterrupted views towards the coastline, and surrounding mountains. A PVC entrance door leads into the home.

Inside, the property benefits from a cleverly flipped living arrangement, with the sleeping accommodation positioned on the ground floor and the main living space located upstairs to fully maximise the stunning views.

The bedroom is arranged in an open-plan style with the entrance area, partially divided by a stud wall incorporating a fitted wardrobe to add both practicality and subtle separation. This cosy and functional space is served by an electric storage heater, with an additional infrared heater positioned above the bed for added comfort.

Beyond the bedroom, an open doorway leads through to a versatile additional room. Currently offering plumbing for a washing appliance, this flexible space could alternatively accommodate a single bed, hobby area, or useful storage, depending on individual requirements. Please note this room does not benefit from direct windows.

The bathroom is conveniently positioned just off the bedroom, effectively functioning as an en-suite. Stylishly finished in a contemporary design, it is fully tiled from floor to ceiling and fitted with a bath with electric shower over, wash basin, and WC.

A staircase rises to the first floor, where the main living accommodation opens into a bright and inviting lounge. This spacious room enjoys the property's finest views, with the front elevation framing stunning sea vistas and creating a wonderfully uplifting living environment. A prominent chimney breast houses what is believed to be the original ornate cast iron fireplace, adding charm and character to the room. There is also space for a compact dining table and chairs, making this a practical and sociable living area.

Positioned to the rear and open plan to the lounge, the kitchen is fitted with a range of contemporary high-gloss wall and base units, offering a sleek and functional finish. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, hob, and extractor hood, while a stainless steel sink with drainer sits conveniently beneath the worktop. There is under-counter space for a fridge, and the immersion hot water tank is neatly concealed within a storage cupboard.

From the kitchen, access is provided to the rear garden, where a compact paved patio creates an initial outdoor seating area. Steps rise through a tiered garden arrangement, leading first to a stone-chipped section before continuing across three further elevated levels. At the very top, a level terrace laid with artificial turf rewards you with exceptional panoramic views over the coastline and surrounding landscape. Early risers will be particularly captivated by the spectacular sunrises enjoyed from this elevated position.

The property has also recently benefitted from newly fitted front elevation windows, installed in December 2025, further enhancing comfort and efficiency.

The property is within a short distance of Llanddulas village center, offering a chip shop, post office, the popular Valentine Inn gastro pub, an Indian takeaway/restaurant, Llanddulas beach, and coastal paths. Commuting along the North Wales Coast is effortless with the A55 just moments away!
