Property Description

Step through a timber-glazed front door into a welcoming entrance porch featuring an exposed brick finish, offering a hint of the home’s original charm. A second timber-glazed door opens into a bright and spacious lounge, beautifully presented with laminate flooring and a striking exposed brick chimney breast — the ideal focal point for an electric fire set upon a stone-effect hearth.

From here, the kitchen provides both style and function, fitted with a “Thomas and Thomas” design complemented by solid timber and granite worktops. There’s ample space for a freestanding gas cooker, plumbing for a washing appliance, and convenient storage beneath the stairs. A rear door opens out onto a private courtyard garden — a perfect spot to relax and unwind.

Upstairs, the primary bedroom is generously proportioned, featuring exposed timber floorboards, fitted storage, and plenty of room for a king-size bed and additional furniture. The second bedroom, also with exposed timber flooring, offers versatility - ideal as a guest room, home office, or nursery.

Appointed with timber-effect flooring, this stylish bathroom features a recently installed low-threshold walk-in shower enclosure with glass screen, rainfall shower head and separate handheld attachment. A contemporary WC and wash hand basin are neatly incorporated into a vanity unit providing useful storage below, while decorative timber panelling and a chrome heated towel rail complete the room's modern and practical finish.

The rear garden has been thoughtfully designed for low maintenance, laid with artificial turf and timber decking — perfect for enjoying the sun throughout the day.

Adding to its appeal, the property includes a boarded loft with power and lighting accessed via a pull-down ladder, gas central heating, and double glazing throughout. Unusually for terrace homes in Abergele, this property benefits from its own designated off-road parking area, complete with a neat stone-chipped parking bay, a small lawn, and a charming summer house — ideal for storage or enjoying a quiet moment outdoors.

Located just moments from Abergele Town Centre, residents can enjoy an array of local amenities including shops, cafés, gastro pubs, and schools at all levels. The award-winning North Wales coastline, scenic walking routes, and the A55 Expressway are all within easy reach, making this home a perfect blend of convenience and character.
